WHIG NOMINATIONS.
FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
MILLARD FILLMORE.
FOR GOVERNOR,
ELIJAH L. HAMILIN.

Penobscot and Piscataquis
Congressional Convention.
THERE will be a Convention of the Whigs of the Congressional District, composed of Penobscot and Piscataquis Counties, at EAST CORINTH, on THURSDAY, the 27th day of August next, at 11 o'clock, A.M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent said District in the next Congress.

The Washington Union is out against GEN. TAYLOR because he is pledged to yield his assent to the doctrine of the Wilmot Proviso, and is pledged not to resort to the Presidential Veto against it, if the people shall constitute a Congress that shall enact those doctrines into a law.

"I do not desire the presidency, and only consent to be a candidate in the same proportion in which it is desired by the people irrespective of party; and he that cannot be trusted without pledges, cannot be trusted with them. I have no private purposes to accomplish—no party projects to build up—no enemies to punish—nothing to serve but my country."

ZACHARY TAYLOR.
"If the enemy oppose my march, in whatever numbers, I shall fight him."—GEN. TAYLOR at the battle of Palo Alto.

"Keep it before the People."

At the Union Convention of Baltimore that met in February last, the following resolution was reported by a committee of which JOHN VAN BUREN WAS A MEMBER, and unanimously adopted.
Resolved, That GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR, for his masterly correspondence with the War Department, no less than for his heroic conduct and indomitable coolness and courage on the field of battle has shown himself to be not only a distinguished military chieftain, but a man of great mental and moral power, and whose life has given evidence of a strong head, an honest heart, and a Republican sympathy of character.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Niagara—Frightful Rebellion in Paris—15,000 Killed and Wounded.

The Steamer Niagara arrived at Bham on Wednesday.
The most important intelligence in that relating to the more warlike France. The news from this quarter is terrible and heart-rending and many of the best men in Paris have perished in the conflict. The red hot radicals who the red hot radicals with outlaws and exiles have united in a desperate effort for the supremacy.
The origin of the outbreak was the termination of the government to lessen the number of workmen from the provinces who were hanging about Paris without regular employment—3000 of them were drafted and sent to do military service. They marched out but soon spent their money and returned a made an address of grievances to the Government and at length raised the cry of down with the Government. On the 22nd of June 50,000 of these men engaged barricades at the Pont St Denis and Martin, many of them armed. They were attacked by the National Guards after a desperate fight the insurgents after the loss of 40 or 50 killed.

Place de la Concorde, Pont St Denis, Rue de Rivoli, the Boulevards and other parts were occupied by troops but the National Guards were to be seen in several districts and were backed by the National Guards and the insurgents with occasional successes on both sides.

In the afternoon, at the Pont St Denis the barricade was attacked and the insurgents continued their efforts until they were completely routed. At length the National Guards retired for want of ammunition.
At the Ecole de Medecine the engagement was very bloody, and several Deputies and General officers were killed and wounded.
The Assembly appointed General Cassagnac as commander-in-chief, with unlimited powers.

In the quarter of St Jacques the struggle was most terrible. All around the Temple at one o'clock, the town was in possession of the insurgents who defended themselves with much energy. At least 50,000 of the dragoons of France were engaged.

During the greater part of the day the National Guards accompanied the commander-in-chief to all the scenes of combat.
The night of the 23rd was a terrible one and the streets were filled with the dead and dying.
